1. Lift up your eyes, set not your mind On all the world runs af - ter
2. Lift up your eyes be - yond the skies To where your Sav - ior's sea - ted
3. Lift up your tear - ful, wea - ry eyes This world is not your har - bor

The things they crave, their emp - ty praise, Quick - ly van - ish like a mist
 Your life which once was found be - low now is hid - den there in Him
 Each hea - vy plight is tru - ly light when com - pared to hea - ven's gold

With no - thing we be - gan this life With no - thing we will leave it
 Where my - ri - ads of an - gels praise With righteous saints made per - fect
 Cast off the weight of world - li - ness And fol - low with en - dur - ance

Ex - cept the souls that Christ made whole With His pre - cious, heal - ing
 In joy and peace that nev - er cease Flow - ing from the throne of
 He who for us en - dured the cross Look - ing to the great re -

2, 3. CHORUS

God. O lift up your eyes, Ev - ry trea - sure be - low
Is as no - thing next to know - ing the Sav - ior
O lift up your eyes, Make His king - dom your home
Your am - bi - tion, just to hear the words "well done."
