

Psalm 113

Sing praise, you servants of the Lord
And praise His name in one accord
Blest be the Lord's name now and ever

From where we see the rising sun
To where it sets when day is done
Shall the Lord's name be praised forever

Above all nations is the Lord
Exalted and by all adored
His glory far surpasses heav'n

Who with the Lord our God compares?
He is enthroned above the spheres
He gazes down on earth and heav'n

The woman once deprived of sons
Finds joy among her little ones
To God our Lord your praises rendered
